- Identify and assess the risk of material misstatements of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatements resulting from fraud is higher than that for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the company's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosure made by the management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements, or if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to date of our auditor's report. However, further events or conditions may cause the company to cease to continue as a going concern.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that are identified during our audit.

1.4 Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements.

We have obtained information and explained asked for, which, to the best of our knowledge and belief, were necessary for the purpose of our audit. In our opinion, statement of financial position, statement of income, statement of change in equity and statement of cash flows, have been prepared in accordance with the requirement of Companies Act, 2063 and are in agreement with the books of accounts maintained by the company and proper books of account as required by the law maintained by the company including relevant records related to preparation of the aforesaid financial statements have been kept so far as it appears from our examination of those books and records of the company.

In our opinion, so far as appeared from our examination of the books, the company has maintained adequate capital funds and adequate provisions for possible impairment of assets in accordance with the applicable laws.

To the best of our information and according to explanation given to us and so far spread from our examination of the books of accounts of the company, we have not come across cases where board of directors or any employee of the company have acted contrary to the provisions of the laws relating to accounts, or committed any misappropriation or caused loss or damage to the company and violated any directives issued by the regulatory authorities or acted in a manner to jeopardize the interest and security of the company, its creditors and shareholders.

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Proprietor of the M/s Keni Furniture Udhyog / D N D Construction

1.1 Report on the Audit of the Financial Statement:

Opinion:

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the M/s Keni Furniture Udhyog / D N D Construction which comprise the statement of financial position as at Ashadh 32, 2082 (16th July, 2025) and the statement of Income for the year then ended, statements of change in equity and statement of cash flow and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly in material respect. The financial position of the company as at Ashadh 32, 2082 (16th July, 2025), its financial performance and its cash flows for the year then ended has been prepared in accordance with Nepal Accounting Standard.

Basis for opinion:

We conducted our audit in accordance with Nepal Standards on Auditing. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the company in accordance with ICAN's Handbook of Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

1.2 Responsibilities of the Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements.

The company's management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Nepal Accounting Standard and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatements, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the company's financial reporting process.

1.3 Auditor's Responsibility for Audit of the Financial Statements.

Our objective is to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatements, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an Auditor's Report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance; but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Nepal Standards on Auditing will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error, and are considered material if, individually or taken together, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis these financial statements. As part of the audit accordance with NAS, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also
